

REACCH-OUT

- The REACCH OUT study is being conducted at participating centers across Canada
- Royal University Hospital and the University of Saskatchewan are involved in patient enrollment
- Goal of Study: to investigate the long term quality of life and outcomes of children/adolescents with arthritis
- Liason for REACH OUT: Dr. Ciaran Duffy, The Montreal Children's Hospital, McGill University Health Center